SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. A radio station commanded by a Soviet naval officer was at the Bug auf Ruegen airfield (N 55/P 57). * All concrete roads and taxiways were demolished. Hangars and barracks buildings were completely dismantled. Some civilians had settled in the area and lived in houses built from the debris. No clearance work was being done.

25X1C

25X1A * Comment: A naval radio station is reported for the first time.

25X1A * Comment: Confirms the previously reported status of the airfield, which is not suited for occupation by an air unit. A previous report that the field was to be re-conditioned has not proved to be true.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
